*The Family of Mollie (Grove) Powell and William Powell
(Washington County)*

*Backside of Photograph:
"William Powell and Wife"*

William and Mollie (Grove) Powell established a large family of Powells in Washington County, Maryland. There were thirteen children (ten surviving childhood). They also raised their grandson, George L. Davis after the death of his father Alvey Davis of tuberculosis in 1914.

In one copy of the preceding photo of a gathering at the Powell farm, the gentleman looking upward (upper right hand corner) is identified as Charles Powell, brother of William. This has created a problem in identification. William had three brothers: John E., Jerome and Andrew. Is he one of them but misnamed by someone as Charles? Another copy of the picture has this man identified as Alvey Davis, the first husband of Iva Powell. He, however, died in 1914 and Iva married a second time to Frank May and one of their twin daughters, Geraldine (born 1916), is in this photograph. Could this gentleman be Harry Powell (1892-1974) one of the sons of William and Mollie? Harry's wife Lottie and first two sons, "Whitie" and "AJ", are in this picture. They lived at the time in St. James not far from the Powell farm. He though would have been in his early twenties. The man pictured appears much older? Was Harry the family member chosen to take the picture? The young woman behind Geraldine May is identified as Annice (Powell) Stelzer (1920-2005). She was one of the daughters of Russell Powell and Clara (Mowen) Powell (1896-1926), granddaughter of William and Mollie. Annice would have been a baby at the time of this photograph. Also, to whom belonged the wonderful 1920's automobile in the background? Perhaps someone someday will be able to answer these questions. There are always questions when looking at old photographs.
